See for yourself what clients are saying about Tracy Gabbard Photography:

Tracy is a natural at children's photography. I would encourage anyone to realize that you get what you pay for. In selecting Tracy to photograph your family, you will get a professional who will work until she gets the image she wants which will mean your little boy or girl immortalized in a picture you are sure to treasure for a lifetime. I was impressed with her level of technical expertise and natural ability with children.

Go for it, you won't be anything but satisfied, I assure you.

Frequently Asked Questions

Are you willing to work around my budget for photos?

Tracy Gabbard Photography is dedicated to finding which collections best fits your photography needs. During the pre-consultation we will discuss pricing options that help get you the most value.

When can I expect photo prints /and or a CD of my images?

Depending on the session, most galleries will be up within 3 week of the session date. The sooner the order is placed, the sooner you can receive your items. An estimated delivery time for prints is an average of 3 weeks from your order date. Discounts available for early ordering.

When do you typically schedule sessions?

Tracy typically prefers to photograph sessions on weekdays, in the morning or afternoon. Beach sessions are done on the weekends in the evening around sunset

What makes your photography style unique?

Tracy Gabbard Photography strives to capture timeless memories of your family through our simple and classic style. We use minimal backdrops and props in order to focus on the characteristics and qualities that make your little one so special.
